For De La Soul, the story of an 'outcast' rapper making it to the top of the charts is a common one. And while you can count most hip-hop emulators out of the woods these days, their mission is far from complete. Not so with De La Soul, who made some of the most joyously funky beats of the 1990s. But do hip-hop fans still appreciate their work? The question is important, because if they do, then it's finally time for a new generation of De La Soul fans to get on board, and Sankofa is here to answer it. Inspired by the manga and anime that pre-date 'it' by a couple of years, this new offering is immediately recognisable as the work of the group's Fab 5 Freddy and Posdnous. With this exact same flair as De La's original, the application here is considerably improved, with fewer flaws and more to offer in the realms of song editing, mixing and mastering. Create, edit and mix your own music with Mastered De La

Soul! With a long history of original De La Soul music, the Fab 5 Freddy and Posdnous team at Sankofa have evolved the experience for those 'outcast' rappers in the household. This time around, they've brought the application to you on Windows, Mac and Linux to give you an even wider experience, enabling you to load and load of music whilst simultaneously recording songs that will fit in perfectly with your dancefloor mix. Use the cool visual mixer to create custom songs, hot from the beat, and of course the all-important use of bundled and third party effects. So what are you waiting for? Go get Sankofa now and make your De La Soul experience one to

Demisco Joky Version History: Version 3.2.3 If you like this app you can give us a support as a thank youHey Everyone, I found the following paragraphs in our NDA: "If you include any intellectual property information or information obtained from a third party (in any form) as part of your submission to Enron, Enron reserves the right to use such information for any purpose, including but not limited to, to develop or prepare reports regarding your performance, and without any obligation to compensate you for such use. You should not include any sensitive, proprietary, confidential, or privileged information or material in your submission." Am I correct in understanding that this means that if I submit a Word Document with source code from a third party, Enron will not own the copyright to this code, but we will have the right to use it for any purpose? Thanks for your input, Kurt1. Field of the Invention The present invention relates to an
